

PROCLAMATION

- WHEREAS, Kentucky State University has a more than 125-year tradition of educating students to make a difference in the world; and
- WHEREAS, the primary focus of Kentucky State University is to attract and educate talented students by providing a dedicated staff and faculty with diverse backgrounds and experiences; and
- WHEREAS, Kentucky State University works to provide the best academic, leadership and social opportunities possible to all students, whether they are new freshmen, transfer, graduate or adult students; and
- WHEREAS, Kentucky State University is committed to helping students achieve academic mastery and personal fulfillment by providing dozens of challenging academic programs across a wide variety of disciplines; and
- WHEREAS, Kentucky State University further provides students with opportunities for self-discovery and the development of leadership skills through student organizations, sports and cultural events, community-service activities and internships which enhance the knowledge and skills needed to successfully meet the challenges of life, work and community;
- NOW, THEREFORE, I, Carter M. Hendricks, Mayor of the City of Hopkinsville, Kentucky, do hereby commend KSU President Raymond M. Burse, Kentucky State University faculty, staff and students for their outstanding commitment to reach prospective students in Hopkinsville by declaring today

KENTUCKY STATE UNIVERSITY DAY

in Hopkinsville, Kentucky.

DATED this 30th Day of January 2015.

Carter M. Hendricks, Mayor
City of Hopkinsville