

PROCLAMATION

- WHEREAS, the Hopkinsville Salvation Army was organized in the year 1914 by Henry Vallier; and
- WHEREAS, the Salvation Army has been an essential part of this community by feeding the hungry, sheltering the homeless, clothing the needy, and befriending the lonely and afraid; and
- WHEREAS, the Hopkinsville Salvation Army performs all of these services with caring and loving hearts for God and His people; and
- WHEREAS, the Salvation Army could not provide the services so critical to those in need in our community without its loyal base of dedicated volunteers and supporters; and
- WHEREAS, our community is made richer for the volunteer opportunities provided through service in the Salvation Army Soup Kitchen and Kettle Brigades;
- NOW, THEREFORE, We, Carter M. Hendricks, Mayor of the City of Hopkinsville, Kentucky, and Steve Tribble, Judge Executive of Christian County, Kentucky, do hereby commend, thank, and celebrate the staff and volunteers, past and present, of the Hopkinsville Salvation Army for their outstanding commitment and dedication for 100 years of service to our community by declaring today
