

Proclamation

- WHEREAS, Christian Care Communities, founded in Louisville in 1884, is Kentucky's largest faith-inspired nonprofit provider of senior living and long-term care services; and
- WHEREAS, the Reverend William A. Broadhurst was the founder of this nonprofit ministry and his October birthdate is a time to honor his vision of a home that would enhance the journey of life for older adults; and
- WHEREAS, the mission of Christian Care Communities remains steadfast after 133 years of service to the citizens of the Commonwealth of Kentucky; and
- WHEREAS, with the 1978 dedication and later expansion of the Christian Health Center in Hopkinsville, local services have grown to include affordable senior housing, equitable retirement living, a memory daycare as well as short-term nursing and home health services, all with the capacity to serve over 1,000 Western Kentucky older adults and their families annually; and
- WHEREAS, we recognize that citizens care about Christian County and are motivated to help make Christian County an even better place to live, work, worship, visit and play.

NOW, THEREFORE, WE, CARTER M. HENDRICKS, Mayor of Hopkinsville, and STEVE TRIBBLE, Christian County Judge/Executive, do hereby jointly proclaim October 15-21, 2017 as

Christian Care Communities Founders Week

in all of Hopkinsville and Christian County, Kentucky.

This 16th day of October 2017.

Carter M. Hendricks, Mayor
City of Hopkinsville

Steve Tribble, Judge/Executive
Christian County, Kentucky
