

PROCLAMATION

- WHEREAS, the primary mission of the Social Work profession is to enhance well-being and help meet the basic needs of all people, especially the most vulnerable in society; and
- WHEREAS, Social Work is one of the fastest growing careers in the United States with more than 640,000 members of the profession; and
- WHEREAS, Social Workers work in all areas of our society to improve happiness, health and prosperity, including in government, schools, universities, social service agencies, communities, the military and mental health and health care facilities; and
- WHEREAS, Social Workers have helped this nation live up to its ideals by successfully pushing for equal rights for all; and
- WHEREAS, Social Workers have helped people in this nation overcome hardships and economic and health care uncertainty by successfully advocating for initiatives such as Medicaid, unemployment insurance, workplace safety, Social Security benefits, the Civil Rights Act, the Voting Rights Act, and the Affordable Care Act; and
- WHEREAS, Social Workers are the largest group of mental health care providers in the United States and daily work to help people overcome depression, anxiety, substance abuse and other disorders so they can lead more fulfilling lives; and
- WHEREAS, Social Workers help bolster our nation's security by providing support to active duty military personnel, veterans and their families; and
- WHEREAS, thousands of child, family and school Social Workers across the country provide assistance to protect children and improve the social and psychological functioning of children and their families; and
- WHEREAS, Social Workers work with older adults, intellectual and developmental disabled individuals and their families to improve their quality of life and ability to live independently as long as possible and get access to quality mental health and health care;
- WHEREAS, Social Workers have helped the United States and other nations overcome earthquakes, floods, wars and other disasters by helping survivors access services such as food, shelter, health care and mental health care to address stress and anxiety.

NOW THEREFORE, in recognition of the numerous contributions made by America's Social Workers, we, Carter M. Hendricks, Mayor of Hopkinsville, and Steve Tribble, Judge/Executive of Christian County, do hereby proclaim March 2017 as:
