

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Cheryl Cook has made Hopkinsville - Christian County Convention and Visitors Bureau her home in every sense of the word over the last twenty one years as Executive Director; and

WHEREAS, dedication to her profession and hosting visitors from all around the world by sharing all the wonderful features Hopkinsville - Christian County has to offer. Her commitment to serving eighteen years on the Kentucky Travel Industry Association as a board member and serving as President for the Kentucky Association of Convention and Visitors Bureaus have empowered Cheryl to be a premier driver for the travel industry during the 2017 Solar Eclipse; and

WHEREAS, Cheryl has applied that drive and level of commitment to serving our visitors and the community, by bettering the lives of many through countless efforts, activities, projects, and especially seeing to fruition the development of the new Visitors Bureau building which now host daily visitors; and

WHEREAS, Retirement is a milestone that signifies the peak of a rewarding career and the beginning of a new chapter in life - one we hope is even more rewarding and with lots of travel in the near future.

NOW, THEREFORE, we, Carter M. Hendricks, Mayor of Hopkinsville, and Steve Tribble, Christian County Judge/Executive, upon the occasion of her retirement, do hereby proclaim June 28, 2018, as in Hopkinsville and Christian County and encourage all citizens in the City of Hopkinsville and Christian County to express their congratulations and gratitude for her service and dedication to this community.

DATED this 28TH day of June 2018.
